

California Association of Labor Relations Officers

2016 Election and the Impact on Labor and Expressive Activity

Updated Training Seminar

The California Association of Labor Relations Officers presents its Labor/Management Dispute Training Seminar for 2017. The seminar is scheduled to be held May 31, June 1 and 2, 2017. Attendees will receive an overview regarding the function of law enforcement when handling labor disputes between organized labor and management. Also, a legal update on current trespass /public access laws applicable to any demonstration or picket line situation, including the latest case law on shopping mall access. Finally, an overview of upcoming labor disputes that will affect your department.
