

California Association of Labor Relations Officers

2018 Protecting Those Who Protect

Updated Training Seminar

The California Association of Labor Relations Officers presents its Labor/Management Dispute Training Seminar for 2018. The seminar is scheduled to be held May 30, 31 and June 1, 2018. Attendees will receive an overview regarding the function of law enforcement when handling labor disputes between organized labor and management. Also, a legal update on current trespass /public access laws applicable to any demonstration or picket line situation, including the latest case law on shopping mall access. Laws regarding First Amendment protests will be discussed. Finally, an overview of upcoming labor disputes that will affect your department.
